

Privacy Policy

iMaxeam operates the website <http://www.imaxeam.com>. It is iMaxeam's policy to respect your privacy regarding any information we may collect while operating our websites.

Website Visitors

Like most website operators, iMaxeam collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. iMaxeam's purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how iMaxeam's visitors use its website. From time to time, iMaxeam may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of its website. iMaxeam also collects potentially personally-identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses. iMaxeam does not use such information to identify its visitors, however, and does not disclose such information, other than under the same circumstances that it uses and discloses personally-identifying information, as described below.

Gathering of Personally-Identifying Information

Certain visitors to iMaxeam's websites choose to interact with iMaxeam in ways that require iMaxeam to gather personally-identifying information. The amount and type of information that iMaxeam gathers depends on the nature of the interaction. For example, we ask visitors who submit for more information at <http://www.imaxeam.com> to provide a name and email address. In any case, iMaxeam collects such information only insofar as is necessary or appropriate to fulfill the purpose of the visitor's interaction with iMaxeam. iMaxeam does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below. And visitors can always refuse to supply personally-identifying information, with the caveat that it may prevent them from engaging in certain website-related activities.

Aggregated Statistics

iMaxeam may collect statistics about the behavior of visitors to its websites. For instance, iMaxeam may monitor the most popular urls for an account or domain to help identify trends or spam activity. iMaxeam may display this information publicly or provide it to others. However, iMaxeam does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below.

Protection of Certain Personally-Identifying Information

iMaxeam discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only to those of its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations that (i) need to know that information in order to process it on iMaxeam's behalf or to provide services available at iMaxeam's websites, and (ii) that have agreed not to disclose it to others. Some of those employees, contractors and affiliated organizations may be located outside of your home country; by using iMaxeam's websites, you consent to the transfer of such information to them.

iMaxeam will not rent or sell potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information to anyone. Other than to its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations, as described above, iMaxeam discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only when required to do so by law, or when iMaxeam believes in good faith that disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect the property or rights of iMaxeam, third parties or the public at large. If you send us a request (for example via a support or inquiry email or via one of our feedback or contact mechanisms) through a iMaxeam website and have supplied your email address, iMaxeam may occasionally send you an email to tell you about new products and services, solicit your feedback, or just keep you up to date with what's going on with iMaxeam and our products. iMaxeam takes all measures reasonably necessary to protect against the unauthorized access, use, alteration or destruction of potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information.

Cookies

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. iMaxeam uses cookies to help iMaxeam identify and track visitors, their usage of iMaxeam website, and their website access preferences. iMaxeam visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using iMaxeam's websites, with the drawback that certain features of iMaxeam's websites may not function properly without the aid of cookies. Any storage of potentially personal information within cookies is encrypted to further ensure your security.

Business Transfers

If iMaxeam, or substantially all of its assets, were acquired, or in the unlikely event that iMaxeam goes out of business or enters bankruptcy, user information would be one of the assets that is transferred or acquired by a third party. You acknowledge that such transfers may occur, and that any acquirer of iMaxeam may continue to use your personal information as set forth in this policy.

Ads

iMaxeam does not allow third-party advertising on our websites.

Comments

iMaxeam does not allow non-employees to make comments or posts on our websites.

Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, iMaxeam may change its Privacy Policy from time to time, and in iMaxeam's sole discretion. iMaxeam encourages visitors to frequently check this page for any changes to its Privacy Policy. If you do business with iMaxeam, you should also check this page frequently for any changes. Your continued use of this site after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.
